CAMARA COMING?

A Great Big Bluff—Only One of a Job Lot.

Washington, July 18.—What was intended to be an alarming rumor, no doubt, but which has signally failed to frighten any one so far, is the report which has reached the Navy Department here, to the effect that Admiral Camara's Spanish fleet, or a portion of it, is to be sent to the United States for the purpose of bombarding coast cities.

The dispatch, which came from an authentic source, said that Camara's fleet would be divided, part of it remaining at home and the other part crossing the Atlantic for the purpose of giving the people along the coast a taste of what bombardment means.

If Spain's threat was made for the purpose of causing any change in the plans of this government, it has signally failed. Commodore Watson's fleet will go to Spain, as originally intended, and if any of Camara's fleet comes across the ocean they will be taken care of without the least difficulty. The Spanish ships cannot emerge from the Mediterranean past Gibraltar without being detected, and as soon as they leave, the Navy Department will undertake to meet them. It can safely be predicted that if they start to come across, which is by no means certain, they will never have a chance to fire a gun except in self-defense. They will be met and destroyed.

Charles L. Andrews Best Man.

A very pretty home wedding took place yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride, on Lovitt avenue, the contracting parties being Miss Elizabeth Brown and Mr. Theodore C. Andrews, both of Norfolk. The parlor was tastefully decorated with palms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. E. Woodson, of St. Peter's P. E. Church in the presence of only the immediate families of the bride and groom. The groom entered the room accompanied by Mr. Charles L. Andrews, of Greensboro, N. C., while Miss Mozelle Andrews, also of Greensboro, acted as maid of honor to the bride, entering alone. The bride entered upon the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Frank P. McIntyre, who gave her away. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Andrews left over the Seaboard Air Line for a trip in Western North Carolina. There were no cards.—Norfolk Evening Ledger.

Patriotic People.

The handsome blotter we have seen here has been issued by the indomitable, irrepressible Simpson-Shields Shoe Co., of this city. One of them is a regular size blotter bearing a beautiful design of an American flag. The other is small and bears both an American and a Cuban flag. Both of them have neatly printed advertisements for the firm.

We call attention to the fact that the sales of this excellent firm for the first month of the second year of their existence as a firm were about five times as much as it was for the first month of the first year.

Mobs Burn Public Buildings in Spain.

Madrid, July 18.—The increase in the criminal rates, or duties on produce taken into the towns, is causing turbulence in the rural districts of Spain. The populace of the province of Huelva has rebelled against the imports of corn and flour, and attacked and set fire to a number of public buildings. The troops had to be called out to repress the disorder. The Pais, organ of the Republicans, is endeavoring to secure the support of the army and navy for this purpose.

TROUBLE WITH THE CUBANS?

Cuban Troops Eager To Loot The City of Santiago.

THEY REFUSE TO WORK OR FIGHT

Twenty-Two Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Spaniards in The List of Surrendered.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, July 19.—The ordnance bureau is considering the use of the large quantity of arms and ammunition, and fortification guns surrendered at Santiago. The captured maulers will be put in order for the use of the American army.

Some twenty thousand old antiquated guns mounted in the forts along the shore which are totally useless will probably be brought to the United States as souvenirs.

MAY HAVE TO FIGHT CUBANS.

Santiago, July 19.—It is reported that the Cuban troops are eager to loot the city, which General Shafter has forbidden them to enter. The relations with our officers are considerably strained, and there is no evidence of a probable early collision between our troops and the Cubans who realize that there is a rising sentiment against them among the American troops, even our officers openly displaying contempt for them. It has been reported that they are both lazy and filthy in demeanor, refusing to fight or work.

Shafter and Sampson have come to a disagreement regarding the prizes found in the harbor, both claiming the honor.

CONDITIONS AT SANTIAGO.

Santiago Harbor, July 19.—Quiet continues and the American flag floats calmly over Morro. Red Cross emblems are displayed promiscuously over the city. Most of the stores are open but patrons are few.

Many beggars are in evidence and there is some suffering among the better class of people. An American guard has been placed over the landing of supplies.

Yesterday afternoon a large number of American transports fully dressed with hunting and flags entered the harbor making an imposing appearance and were greeted by the Spanish inhabitants with laughter. There is much cheering among the Spanish troops who will soon be embarked for transportation home.

The government tug Potomac has arrived and will assist in raising the wrecks of the Spanish vessels. The long bridge at Aguadores has been replaced.

LIST OF SURRENDERED.

Washington, July 19.—A dispatch from General Shafter says the list of prisoners handed in by General Toral yesterday numbers twenty-two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

Trinity Trustees Meeting.

A meeting of the board of trustees of Trinity College was held in Durham last night for the purpose of investigating the Clark-Kilgo matter. Judge Clark was present and said he had no evidence to lay before the board, but that if given time he could get the evidence. He asked for thirty days in which to do this. He was given forty days and the board adjourned until the expiration of that time.

More Quick Work.

A case was reported to Officer Scott last night in which a colored man Jim Taylor was charged with stealing a suit of clothes from Mr. J. C. Abbot, out at the Finishing Mill. Mr. Scott had Taylor in jail and had collected sufficient evidence to convict him within ten minutes.

"Off Duty."

The porter at the McAdoo, while waiting for a delayed train last night, imbibed too freely in "old tangle leg" and left some baggage at the depot. The driver being off, the porter drove to the hotel where he left the horses and bus standing the street all night. The porter is off duty today.

EWART RESIGNS.

Turns Loose One Thing After Being Sure of Another.

Secretary to the Governor, the Rev. Baylus Cade, said yesterday that H. G. Ewart's resignation as judge of the Western criminal court, is now in the hands of his excellency. Judge Ewart having been duly appointed a federal judge by President McKinley during the interim, feels that he can safely turn loose the minor office. There is no intimation as to who will succeed Judge Ewart as criminal judge. —News and Observer.

COLONEL BRYAN EN ROUTE.

Departure of His Regiment from Omaha for Jacksonville.

Omaha, July 18.—Col. William J. Bryan's regiment has at last started for the front, and the late presidential candidate, in his soldier uniform, is now on the Burlington road enroute to Jacksonville, where Colonel Bryan and his regiment will be under the command of General Fitzhugh Lee.

Colonel Bryan, his staff and the Second Battalion of the regiment started over the Burlington road, and will be transferred to the Illinois Central at Mendota, Ill., thence over the Illinois Central to Duquoin, Ill., and from there to Martin. They will then take the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad to Nashville, Chattanooga and Atlanta, and thence over the Central railroad of Georgia to Albany, and from there they will take the Plant System to Jacksonville. Major McClay, with the Third Battalion, went east over the Rock Island. The First Battalion, under Lieutenant Colonel Viquain, goes via St. Louis. The regiment will be reunited at Nashville.

THE IRENE HELD UP.

What Would the British Do if Germans Interfered?

London, July 19.—The Hong Kong correspondent of the Mail says: "United States Consul Wildman informs me that as the German cruiser Irene was passing Mariveles, off Manila, the other day, the United States gunboat, Hugh McCulloch was sent after her to ask her stop. As the Irene refused to obey a shell was sent across her bow and a small boat went to discover what she was doing. The German admiral protested and insisted that German ships had a right to enter the harbor without being searched, a claim which Dewey declined to recognize."

"It is reported that Admiral von Diederichs, who is in command of the German squadron at Manila, interviewed Captain Chichester, of the British cruiser, Immortalite, as to what he would do if the Germans interfered with the bombardment of Manila. Captain Chichester replied that only Admiral Dewey and himself knew that."

THERE MUST BE NO DELAY

The Porto Rican Expedition is Being Pushed.

CAMARA'S FLEET BEEN SIGHTED.

Spanish Battleship Badly Damaged By An Explosion—Cipher Cablegram From Dewey.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, July 19.—The administration means to have no delay in sending out the Porto Rican expedition. General Miles with the advance guard has already left Santiago and is lying off Guantanamo on the Yale with ten thousand men. Four light batteries would have sailed direct for Porto Rico last night but for the delay in orders, which was the fault of a messenger.

General Shafter's protest against sending any of the Santiago army to Porto Rico has been heeded here. The men now at Santiago will be sent north again to recuperate while fresh troops will compose the Porto Rican expedition.

The army of invasion will consist of 40,000 thousand men. Gen. Miles will have Generals Brooke and Coppinger as seconds. There are now 4,000 men on transports at Balquid. Two regiments of regulars, composing General Miles' advance guard, have started. Sixty-hundred men have embarked at Tampa and are ready to sail. Seven thousand troops, including a lot of heavy artillery and infantry troops and Rough Riders now at Tampa, will accompany the second expedition and will join the main body of Rough Riders, which will be the only body now at Santiago to go to Porto Rico. The Sixty-Ninth New York volunteers are scheduled to go to the front.

PELAYA BADLY DAMAGED.

Marseilles, July 19.—It is reported here that Admiral Camara's fleet has been sighted off the coast at Tunis.

An explosion occurred off that coast on the battleship Pelaya. She was badly damaged and was taken in tow by a cruiser.

NOT THE FIRST.

Proud Spain Not the First to Plead the Pauper Act.

Col. A. W. Shaffer, of Raleigh, writes the Morning Post as follows: Kindly put the brake on that story which is going the rounds of the press without contradiction that the claim contained in the capitulation of the Spanish army at Santiago, providing for the return of that army to Spain, at the cost of the United States, is the first of its kind in modern history. It is a mistake, and not the first of its kind even in American history.

The convention for the surrender of the British army under Burgoyne, at Saratoga, to General Gates, of the American army, in October, 1777, contained a stipulation for the return of the British army to England at the expense of the American government, and it was executed, though not without opposition and delay in Congress, as there may be in the Santiago case. I recall this truth of history to show that proud and imperious Spain is not the first of her kind to plead the pauper act with one hand, while boasting of her chivalry, pride and honor with the other. A greater than Spain has set the example.

There is no question about "Vici" being the ideal leather for hot weather as it is both very soft and very cool to the feet. The Rockland line of men's "Vici" shoes are sold and highly recommended by Thacker & Brockmann. They come both in black and tan, in laced and congress, plain common sense toes and latest up-to-date cap toes.

FAST RIDING.

This city has an ordinance against the fast or reckless driving of vehicles or riding of bicycles on the streets. In many instances it is paid no attention to whatever. These things have been noticed before in these columns. We felt that some of these days, if this reckless practice was allowed to continue, some one would force an investigation.

It has come, on a small scale, it is true, but it will serve as a warning to others. Yesterday afternoon a young colored man, Arthur Hargrove, was tried before His Honor, Mayor Nelson, for running against and knocking down Mr. W. O. Stratford, on East Market street.

The evidence showed that at the time the street was practically deserted; that Mr. Stratford was walking across diagonally; that the negro was scorching and that he was making a bee-line for Mr. Stratford; that he rang his bell and Mr. Stratford stopped still, thinking that the best plan to allow the fellow a better chance to miss him; that instead of steering past him the negro ran into him, knocking him down and bruising him considerably. The Mayor imposed a fine of one dollar and costs.

It was right and proper to impose the fine even though the rider did not intend to strike, injure and humiliate the pedestrian; but in this case it appears that there was no effort on the part of the rider to avoid a collision, notwithstanding there was a wide and smooth street, entirely at his disposal, there being no other wheelmen, vehicles or pedestrians anywhere near.

The point, however, we wish to emphasize is this: Wheelmen should confine themselves to a lawful rate of speed and even then should always be on the alert. A bicycle is a vehicle within the meaning of the law, and a man has no more right to ride over a person than he has to drive over him with a four-horse wagon. Being noiseless, there is often no warning to people crossing the streets that a wheelman is coming. Often when a bell is rung the party walking doesn't know which way to turn and, perhaps, the proper thing to do is to stop and give the wheelman a chance to dodge him. On account of the noiseless nature of the machine a wheelman carries with him more responsibility than does the man who is driving a log wagon.

The last week's number of the Insurance Prospect, published in Atlanta, comes out in handsome eight-page form, printed from clean type and on good paper and filled with up-to-date, seasonable and spicy matter. The editor and owner, Mr. L. C. Phillips, is a Tarheel and we rejoice to note the improvement and enlargement of his paper; it is an evidence of prosperity.

Again the superiority of our telegraphic news service has been demonstrated. Yesterday afternoon our readers were given every item of importance which the morning papers this morning gave their readers. And it is so nearly every day. When Santiago surrendered, we published the news twelve hours ahead of the morning papers. And this is one of the things which The Telegram has inaugurated for Greensboro.

The republican convention held in this city yesterday was rather against Hon. Thomas Settle. We asked a prominent republican if there were any instructions to congressional delegates. He replied: "No; there was no need of any. We elected a solid Adams delegation." This would indicate that Judge Spencer B. Adams will be the republican nominee for congress. We are not informed in regard to Mr. Settle's strength this year in the other counties composing the district, but it would be unreasonable to suppose he can be nominated without the endorsement of his own county, or at least a part of it.

A Reckoning Coming.

The Republic, a republican paper of the town of Rockingham, said in a recent issue, of Col. Oliver H. Dockery, the duplex candidate for congress in this district:

The republican standard-bearer has a clean record—is able and stands for the greatest part of the age.

The Raleigh Post naturally wants to know how such things can be and overcome us like a summer cloud without special wonder. For our part we should not be surprised to see Our Home, of Beaver Dam, and the other papers of the grand circuit, saying this week of their warrior candidate, the self-same colonel:

The populist standard-bearer has a clean record—is able and stands for the best interests of the greatest party of the age (meaning the populist party.)

The colonel is a fit candidate for both of these parties—he and they can adapt themselves to anything that promises to bring success. There is a story of two Roman augurs whose occupation was to humbug the people with their prophecies and sooth-sayings. They were as solemn as owls and bore at all times the outward appearance of men of great dignity and wisdom. Meeting each other suddenly one day they as rounded a corner, they looked at each other for an instant, then both burst into a laugh. The republicans and populists of North Carolina are going to laugh in each other's faces one of these days and the people are going to catch them. Then the jig will be up for both.—Charlotte Observer.

The speech of Father Abraham in the last number of Poor Richard's Almanac, published by Benjamin Franklin in 1757, "Contains the Wisdom of many ages and nations assembled and formed into one connected discourse." When first published it attracted world wide attention and was copied in all the newspapers in America and England and translated into many foreign languages. Would you not like to read it? Get a copy free of charge at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A soldier correspondent with the army of invasion in Cuba relates this incident as illustrative of the discipline practiced by Cuban officers: "Yesterday a Cuban insurgent killed a horse, presumably for food. For punishment, Garcia ordered him placed in an old barn, his feet put in stocks and the carcass of the dead animal placed beside him. He can eat from the bones of this dead horse or starve during his period of six days' confinement. I would not have believed such a tale as this if I had not seen the thing with my own eyes."

To Preserve Neutrality.

Tangiers, July 18.—The Sultan is concentrating forces in the vicinity of Centa and Melita to guard the frontier and to preserve neutrality.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrated me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I fortified myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Notes of The Prowler

The Prowler came in this morning to get a free drink of ice water. Said he was tired and weary and hot; that the heat was so intense last night he couldn't sleep. He looked sleepy and seating himself he was soon far away in happy dreamland, snoring away as if there was no such thing as the possibility of disturbing the peace. As he slept and snored he dreamed and as he dreamed he began to talk. We tried to take down his words in long hand. It was almost as difficult a job as it was for Bridges to take the press service on a typewriter when he began to learn.

The following is part of what he said—we interpreting the dashes, breaks and stops as best we could:

"Yes, I remember when she was a baby. She was a beautiful, dimpled, bright-eyed, curly-headed child, and could sing by the time she could talk. She grew into beautiful and charming young womanhood, and was wooed and won by a thriving young business man. Two children were born to them and life was bright and gay and they were supremely happy in their lovely home. It seemed like there was not a cloud in the sky and not a ripple on the sea.

"But by and by death, cold and clammy, grim and grizzly, came along and took the charming and happy young wife and mother away. It looked like a pity, and I couldn't understand it. I thought about it a great deal and have decided there is a lesson in the picture and that lesson is this: Don't allow yourself to get completely wrapped up in the pretty, the charming and the beautiful and the things which seem perfect in this world. They are as nothing and will one day vanish like mist before the sun and you will be left in worse condition than if you had never known and admired anything."

And the Prowler had talked more sense while asleep than a great many people do when they are wide awake.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. Law, Keokuk Iowa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Republican Infamy.

This is the plain, cold statement of a governmental infamy.

By the law—a proper one—in the state of New York every child under 16 years old who desires to work for wages must produce a certificate from the board of health that he or she is physically fit to work.

By an infamous provision of the revenue law enacted by the republican congress just adjourned, each child is compelled to pay a ten cent stamp and affix it to the certificate.

The express, railroad and telegraph companies shift to the shoulders of their customers the tax which the law sought to impose upon them.

The millionaire brewer and tobacco-nist thrust upon customers the tax which the law imposes upon them. The millionaire bond owner, the Astor or the Bradley-Martin, living abroad in luxury on money drawn perhaps from tenements in which these very children are squallidly housed, pays not a penny of the war tax.

But the little children, whom an unrighteous and un-Christian and an archaic social system compels to work in their playtime, must pay ten cents each in war taxes before they can acquire the privilege of even seeking work.—N. Y. Journal.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with good results," says Mr. W. B. Cooper of El Rio, Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Lights Out.

Algiers, July 18.—The Spanish authorities at Balearia Islands have ordered all coast lights extinguished.

The Grandest Remedy

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It doesn't fail. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Foreigners who may hereafter go to Berlin to find work will be confronted with many difficulties. The police propose to examine all such persons as to their antecedents, and will refuse residence cards to any who may have committed indiscretions against property or who may have been bankrupt. Others must show that they have money enough to support them for a while, or must find work within a fortnight after their arrival; otherwise they will be repulsed to quit Berlin at once.

Of the 7559 convicts now in the prisons of Massachusetts 1087 are women. During the year just ended there was an increase of 68 in number of women and a decrease of 155 men.

There Is Nothing So Good.

There is nothing just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, so demand it and do not permit the dealer to sell you some substitute. He will not claim there is anything better, but in order to make more profit he may claim something else to be just as good. You want Dr. King's New Discovery because you know it to be safe and reliable, and guaranteed to do good or money refunded. For coughs, colds, consumption and for all affections of throat, chest and lungs, there is nothing so good as Dr. King's New Discovery. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

DIAMONDS IN AMERICA.
Half a Billion Dollars' Worth Owed Here—Amount Rapidly Increasing.
In no country are there more diamonds to be found than in the United States, according to the population. It is estimated by a leading Maiden Lane
(New York) diamond dealer that there are upward of $500,000,000 worth of diamonds in this country. Moreover, this vast amount is increasing year by year.
Until quite recently diamonds were rarely cut in this country, but American inventors have developed a process for diamond cutting which is vastly superior to that done abroad.
The loss in weight through cutting is sometimes fully one-half, but the value is increased probably more than twofold.
The Dutch city of Amsterdam has been the great diamond cutting center of the world from time immemorial and up to a few years ago over 12,000 people in that place were directly or indirectly dependent upon this trade.
But it was not reasonable to suppose that Amsterdam should continue to hold a monopoly of diamond cutting. As one of the greatest importing cities of the world, New York gradually offered inducements to diamond cutters, and an industry has been gradually built up here that is now very flourishing and profitable. In 1888 Henry D. Morse of Boston invented a machine for cutting and polishing diamonds, and since then improvements have been made upon it that are very important. The foreigners continue to polish their stones by hand, but in this country machinery is largely used.
A famous gem expert places the total value of all the diamonds in the world at over $1,000,000,000, of which $350,- 000,000 worth are in the hands of dealers, carried as stock. All of the other diamonds are in the hands of private individuals, and the question naturally arises, who owns them? This is not so easily answered, except in the case of large and world famous gems.—Godey's Magazine.

PAYNE'S DESERTED TOMB.
Reminiscences of the Author of "Home,
Sweet Home."
The old Christian cemetery at Tunis is one of the strangest sights in that strange town. Just off a busy thoroughfare, under an ancient archway, is a heavy wooden gate, much worn by the lapse of time, thickly studded with fantastic nails and provided with a prodigious knocker. The latter, however, is not needed, for the gate yields to an energetic push, and you find yourself in a large, walled inclosure, half garden, half graveyard, where an Italian woman is hanging out clothes among the gaunt white tombs. It is 12 years since any one was buried here, and the place is beginning to look neglected. The modern cemetery is now outside the walls, and its guardian told me that many people came to him to inquire for the monument of "an American poet" or "an American consul," and he had to send them to the old graveyard. The monument in question is that of the author of "Home, Sweet Home," and it bears the following inscription upon its sides:
"In memory of John Howard Payne, author of 'Home, Sweet Home.' Born
June 9, 1791; died April 9, 1852.
Erected A. D. 1855."
[American Arms—eagle surmounted
by motto "E Pluribus Unum." "Died at the American consulate in Tunis.
Aged 60 years and 10 months."
"In the tomb beneath this stone the poet's remains lay buried for 30 years.
On Jan. 5, 1883, they were disinterred and taken away to his native land, where they received honor and final burial in the city of Washington June 9, 1883. "Then he contented, poor heart."
"Sure when thy gentle spirit fled
To realms beyond the azure dead,
With arms outstretched God's angel said,
"Welcome to heaven's home, sweet home."
There is a certain appropriateness about the fact that the author of the poet's most pathetic anthem should have died so many thousand miles away from home.—London Sketch.

Rough on Solomon.
The following incident happened at one of the "catechisms" which are held periodically in Scotland for all the members of the kirk of a certain district.
"The lesson was in Ecclesiastes," says Mr. Johnston, "and one day they had been discussing the verse in which Solomon says, 'Among a thousand men I have found one, but among a thousand women have I found not one,' meaning one just and good and upright. And an old Scotchwoman, when she had listened in silence and heard the rest accept it as present and gospel truth, got her dander up and rose to her feet.
"Hoot!" she said indignantly, her eyes blazing. 'Do you find why that was? It was because nae decent woman was to be seen in his company.'"—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

How, Indeed?
She—Do you believe in platonic love?
He—I hardly know. Do you?
She—Well, of course there may be such a thing, but—but—well, between two such people as you and—and—
He—No, not between you and me.
Ah, Helen, platonic love would not do for me! I must speak. Can you—can you—
She—Oh, Alfred, how did you guess
my secret?—Chicago News.

A new invention is one to make telecable is lead covered, and thin spirals of paper are wound around each interior

Blood Brains Money
A sick man can't make money
That's because his brain won't work. A horse won't do work unless he is properly fed.
Neither will a brain. If the brain is not kept in good condition with pure, rich blood,
it won't produce much.
Men who fail, and men who don't, often have what they call "Nervous Prostration."
Nine times in ten the nervous trouble is purely secondary. The real sickness is in their digestion and in their blood. If a man keeps his digestion in good order, and keeps his body full of pure, rich blood,
he is never going to be very sick.
Johnston's Sarsaparilla is made for people who want to get well and stay well. Sarsaparilla is a simple, "grandmother" remedy, but it cures. It purifies and enriches the blood and sends it tingling to every part of the body. That is why it cures all ailments of the brain and nerves—cures insomnia—cures dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and every other blood disease. It clears the completion, plumps out the cheeks, and brings back the sparkle to lifeless eyes.
One Dollar is the price, and One thousand Dollars is the health-giving value of every

Clothiers and Haberdashers,

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Walter Steele, of High Point, was here yesterday.

W. B. Partridge, of High Point, is in the city on business.

Dr. and Mrs. Jno. R. Brooks returned from Durham at noon.

R. P. Turner, of the Greensboro Ice and Coal Company, is on the sick list.

O. D. Boycott is putting in new sewer pipe in front of Clegg's Bakery today.

A car load of raw recruits passed through this morning on the vestibule.

T. L. Rawley, of Winston, was here today and left at noon for Danville.

You can spend a pleasant evening at the lawn party at Mrs. Ballard's Wednesday.

Among other nice things to eat Vuncannon & Co., today advertise new sweet potatoes.

Mrs. Charles Westcott and daughter, Miss Margaret, left today for New York to spend the summer.

Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud are never behind the push; they advertise today the very thing you need.

The work of laying the sewer pipe at the intersection of East Market and Forbis streets is progressing "slowly but surely."

J. C. Murchison's new and handsome residence, corner East Market and South Forbis streets, will soon be completed.

Mrs. Clark, of Fayetteville, who has been visiting Mrs. C. W. Yost in this city, returned to her home on the noon train today.

Miss Ella Godfrey, of Philadelphia, is in the city visiting the family Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Eldridge, on West Market street.

Capt. H. L. Fry and family left at noon on a private car for Wilmington. They will spend some time at the seashore.

Those who suffer from the heat—and who does not—should read the new ad today of the Fishplate-Katz-Rankin clothing company in this issue.

Misses Daisy and Lottie King, of Leaksville, passed through today en route home from Chapel Hill, where they have been attending the Summer School.

Rev. Dr. W. S. Creasy, of Winston, passed through today en route home from Durham, where he went to attend a meeting of the directors of Trinity College.

Almost every train passing through carries old Confederate Veterans who are enroute to Atlanta to the re-union of Confederate veterans which opens in Atlanta tomorrow.

Prof. T. P. Hobgood, of Oxford Female Seminary, passed through last evening, enroute for Thomasville to attend a meeting of the directors of the Thomasville Orphanage.

We are glad to learn that Mr. G. T. Glascock, who we mentioned yesterday as being quite ill, is much better today. He hopes to be able to board the Wesley Flyer for Franklinville tomorrow morning.

The family of John W. Petty have moved to Winston-Salem. They have been occupying a cottage on South Elm street for several years, and are most excellent people. We regret to lose them from our city.

The grading of East Market street at the railroad crossing is being carried on rather slowly. This is a big undertaking and with the small force of hands at work it will be several weeks yet before the grade is completed.

Mrs. M. P. Kidd, of Bristol, Tenn., who has been spending some time in the city visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. S. Phillips, on Cedar street, will leave for her home tonight. She will spend tonight in Winston and leave tomorrow via the N. & W. for Bristol.

Jos. J. Stone has just made a shipment of job work from his office to Washington, N. C. On the same day he made a shipment to Waynesville. These towns are something like four hundred miles apart, but they have found the center of the world and are having their job work done here.

Taken to the Federal Prison.

The fifteen prisoners brought here from Asheville last week were taken to the federal prison at Raleigh today. There was one old man in the party who was convicted of robbing the mails. The rest were convicted of blockading. They go to the pen for terms of 12 and 18 months each. Some of the party seemed to be very well pleased with their lots, while others were sad and silent. Some of the men were about 70 years old.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Wrong Ragan.

Today we received the following note from Mr. W. H. Ragan, of High Point, and gladly give it space. It was, of course, simply an error, and we had no intention to do Mr. W. H. Ragan the injustice of quoting him as a republican:

High Point, N. C., July 19, '98.

Telegram, Greensboro:

I notice you have put me down as secretary of the republican convention on yesterday. I want you to correct this, as I am not a republican. I suppose W. P. Ragan was secretary of the convention.

Yours,
 W. H. Ragan.
